

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Dinner-Baptism-Marriage.

Following the serving of the annual dinner of the congregation of the First Baptist Church and the business incident to the dinner, the baptism was administered to a candidate, following which the Rev. William J. Eddy, pastor of the church, performed a marriage ceremony. Two hundred were seated at the dinner, and following the serving of the menu, reports were heard regarding the finances of the various organizations of the church, and organizations were effected of all societies connected with the church. At the conclusion of the business session, Mr. Eddy baptized Miss Esther Kepler of this city, and at the parsonage which adjoins the church edifice read the marriage ceremony which made George Blankenship and Miss Blanche Mar. Price, both of Clarksburg, man and wife.

Class Meeting.

Mrs. J. S. LeMasters is entertaining the Keystone Class of the First Baptist Church this afternoon at her home in Fairmont avenue. The class which is composed of women will name officers at this meeting.

Mrs. Wilson Honor Guest.

Honoring her house guests, who are Miss Gertrude Allen of Oakland, Cal., Miss Harriett Hamilton Hazard of Monongahela, Pa., and Mrs. Otis Guy Wilson of Fairmont, Mrs. John Harrington Cox entertained with a reception of beautiful appointments yesterday at her home, "The Hedges" on University Drive. Between the hours of 2:30 and 5 o'clock, 150 ladies were received by Mrs. Cox, her house guests, Mrs. Frank Butler Trotter and Mrs. Robert Allen Armstrong. Little Miss Evelyn Cox received the cards at the door and the aides to Mrs. Cox in the drawing room were Mrs. Chauncey W. Waggoner, Mrs. George C. Baker, Mrs. Friend Clark, Mrs. Joseph H. McDermott, Mrs. Elmer Howard Vickers, and Miss Rose Sweney. The table in the drawing room was centered by a basket of sweet peas and masses of spring flowers were used in all the rooms, the shades of yellow predominating in the scheme of decoration.

A basket of yellow tulips formed the center piece for the tea table, and a profusion of daffodils, tulips and forsythia added to the attractiveness of the room. Mrs. Frederick Truscott and Mrs. Charles Benton Cannaday alternated at the tea.

Assisting Mrs. Cox in the dining room were Mrs. Boaz B. Cox, Mrs. James Offutt Lakin, Miss Louise Rogers, Miss Jane McDermott, Miss Virginia Armstrong and Miss Elsie Nor Brock—Morgantown New Dominion.

Here from Baltimore.

Mrs. John Brydon and Mrs. Roland Slinguff of Baltimore, who had been at The Fairmont with an exhibit from an Eastern firm and who are being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Lyon at her home in First street were the guests of honor at a luncheon given today by Mrs. Frederick Randall. They are returning to Baltimore tonight.

To Entertain Club.

The Docean Club will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. Forrest DeBolt in East Park avenue. The guests will meet at 7:30 and spend the remainder of the evening in a social way. The club was recently organized and has a membership of twenty.

Club Entertained.

Spring flowers were effectively used in the decorations yesterday afternoon when Mrs. C. E. Gaskill entertained the members of the Wednesday Bridge Club at her home in Walnut avenue. Several tables were in play during the afternoon and lunch was served.

Fellowcraft Dance.

Much interest centers in the dance to be given on Friday evening by the Fellowcraft Club at the Masonic Temple. The members will be out in large numbers. Mack's Orchestra will furnish the music.

Surprise Party.

A birthday surprise party was given last evening at the home of Mrs. J. S. Stewart in State street, the affair having been arranged to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Bernard Stewart. A large birthday cake centered the serving table from which refreshments were served. Those present were Della Williams, Ruth Brand, Edna Tennant, Anna Bunner, Betty Morhad, Edna Shadford, Wanda and Vera Stewart, Margaret Leonard, Vera Smouse, Bell Fitzpatrick, Hazel Cox, James Cain, Ralph Huggins, Andrew Vance, Mr. Spiker, Carroll Clayton, Roy Morehead, Glenn Morehead, Jess Pritt, and Chaskey Leonard.

Church Banquet.

The annual banquet and business meeting of the Central Christian Church will be held at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night in the church and all of the members are invited to attend. Reports for the entire year will be given. There will be no charge.

Straight-Wotting.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Effie Virginia Wolfing of Morgantown and

The Lure of Bermuda

Weekly sailing from New York on the Palatial Cruising Steamer "ARAGUAYA" of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company.

Round Trip Rates:
$76.00 Inc. 14 days' hotel accommodation.
$129.00 Inc. 12 days' hotel accommodation.
$171.00 Inc. 19 days' hotel accommodation.
Ask for information and booklet, J. S. Stewart & Co., Steamship Agency, 105 Madison, Phone 1453, Fairmont, W. Va.

Boyd Straight of Arnettsville, was solemnized on Saturday at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church at Morgantown, with the Rev. W. E. Lowther officiating.

Mrs. Straight was a teacher in the Osage School, and she is the daughter of Mrs. Robert L. Worthing of Morgantown. Mr. Straight is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Straight of Arnettsville. They will take up their residence on a farm owned by Mr. Straight at Arnettsville.

Moving Today

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Holbert are moving today from Fourth street and Walnut avenue to property which they recently purchased on Locust avenue. The property purchased was the old home property of the late B. D. Fleming and was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Linn Yoder. Mr. and Mrs. Yoder have remodeled the adjoining property which they have been occupying for some time. The residence vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Holbert will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wycoff.

Has Guest

Miss Leona Hauck, who teaches in the public schools at Bellaire, Ohio, is in the city for a brief visit at her home on Merchant street. Miss Hauck has as her guest Miss Nellie Meyers of Bellaire, who accompanied her here. Several social affairs have been arranged for Miss Hauck and Miss Myers during the next few days.

Hold Exchange

Division No. 6 of the Ladies Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church will hold an exchange at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at 407 Main street.

Gave Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Thomas entertained yesterday at a 12 o'clock dinner of pretty appointments at their home, Hamilton street, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roush of Morgantown, who are guests in the city. The event celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. Roush's birth. Covers were laid for twelve.

School Play.

The faculty of the Rivesville School, with the assistance of several others, will give a play at the schoolhouse on Friday evening of this week beginning at 8 o'clock. The play is entitled "And Home Came Ted" and is a clever little comedy the scenes being laid in the office and reception room of Rip Van Winkle Inn in the Catskill mountains.

Those who will take part in the play are Herman Post, Elizabeth Post, Elizabeth Lee Ball, Virgil Jackson, Lulu Hamrick, Joe Feather, Russell Smith, Caroline Gallas, Pauline Snyder, E. E. Haie, Reva Methaney and Albert Tooth.

PERSONALS

Miss Dale Westfall returned this morning from Clarksburg where she had witnessed the production of Chu Chin Chow at the Clarksburg opera house.

Thomas F. Hall of Main street suffered a stroke of paralysis today at his home and is very ill.

Miss Margaret Hession was in Clarksburg last night to see Chu Chin Chow.

James Greedlove of Lowesville had his tonsils removed today at Cook hospital.

Dr. J. A. Cox of Morgantown was a visitor here yesterday, having come here to attend the funeral of Dr. E. M. Cox.

Mrs. William Pratt and little son James went to Pittsburgh this

ECZEMA

Torturing, itching eczema is immediately relieved by the application of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment. This Ointment has an extraordinary control over all itching skin diseases. Pure, healing, soothing—it is not injurious to the most delicate skin. Best for children and remarkable in its effect on all skin irritations. Insect bites, ring worm, chilblains, chafing, sore feet, chapped hands, pimples, blackheads. At all good druggists. To be sure of getting the genuine, see that portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase is on the box—a trademark that protects you against imitations—Advertisement.

ARE YOUR RUGS DIRTY?

Why worry about carpet cleaning when we make a specialty of that work.

We will call at your home, get your carpets, wash them by the Electrical Process and return them the same day or we will come to your home and wash them where they lay on the floor.

Keep Healthy, Clean Your Rugs

KNIGHT ELECTRIC CO.

324 Jefferson St.
Our Process Restores The Original Colors

Social Calendar

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bruce Martin are spending several weeks at Niagara Falls and other points in New York.

A son was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cox at their home in Morgantown. The baby is a nephew of Mrs. Ira L. Smith of Fairmont avenue.

Mrs. Margaret Sturm and daughter, Miss Gail Sturm of Farmington, were guests yesterday of the former's daughter, Mrs. B. L. Martin, at her home in View avenue.

A baby daughter was born March 22 to Mr. and Mrs. Claude West at their home on Morgantown avenue. She has been named Wanda June.

Mrs. Byron Tucker is recovering from an illness with grip at her home on Walnut avenue.

Mrs. Columbia Morgan has returned from a visit with relatives in Clarksburg and Lost Creek.

Mrs. Otis G. Wilson is the guest of Mrs. John Herrington Cox in Morgantown.

The Misses Jessie M. Suttler, and Lena and Edna Matheny and Cleon Suttler were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fennell at their home in Eighth street.

C. E. Minor, Jr., is at home from Kiskiminitas School in Pennsylvania to spend the spring recess with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Minor, at their home on the East Side.

Mrs. Carrie V. Carpenter is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carpenter at Monongah.

Miss Hattie A. Kunst of Grafton is the guest of her brother, Dr. W. H. Kunst, at his home on Jefferson street.

Richard Bartlett, a student at the Waynesburg College at Waynesburg, Pa., is at home to spend the Easter vacation with relatives.

Mrs. Clyde George and little daughter Jane will arrive this evening from their home in Pittsburgh to be the guests of Mrs. W. A. Travers in Locust street.

Arthur G. Dayton, attorney of Philippi, was in Fairmont last evening en route from his home to Pittsburgh.

Colleges and universities of Wisconsin have 100 former soldiers enrolled as students, under provisions of a State bonus which allows them $30 a month for four years beside their educational training.

I'll Buy It Tell Me--

Maybe you have an old chair that you don't use, or an oil stove that has been replaced by gas, or an old sofa that needs upholstering—I'll buy it.

Maybe you have a camera that you will exchange for a bicycle or a gun, or fishing tackle to exchange for a boat, an electric iron for a chafing dish or what not—tell me—I'll swap.

Maybe you need an organ, piano, guitar, or a megaphone. Some one at your house wants some books, toys, souvenirs—I've got 'em.

I Am The West Virginian Want Ad Reader

If you want to buy, sell or exchange, tell me—I'll meet you fifty-fifty.

All next week you can tell me absolutely FREE of charge for The West Virginian Want Ad Department is going to conduct a

Householders' Bargain Week

Six whole days, from April 3 to April 8th. There are no strings and no red tape to this offer.

Don't wait till the last minute—you might miss me. Write up your ads now and send them in to The West Virginian. They'll hold them for you until next Monday when the big sale begins. Write as many as you like—tell me everything you've got.

If You Have a Phone--Use It Call 1105

Ads for Householder's week will be accepted over telephone—if you haven't a telephone, use this coupon.

DO IT NOW

FREE WANT AD COUPON.

This coupon is good for one 24-word want ad, free of charge, during week of April 3rd.

SUGGESTIONS: Write your ad legibly in the space above. Give all important details about the articles you have for sale or desire to buy, such as name, model, size, condition and price. Give your name and address; also phone number, if you have a phone.

DRAMATIC CLUB OF NORMAL GIVES PLAY

'His Model Wife' Presented at Chapel Service This Morning

"His Model Wife" was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

The play was directed by George H. Turley and the assistant director, Robert Putnam. Walter Price was the business manager and James Brownfield and Carlyle Small were the stage managers.

The play was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

The play was directed by George H. Turley and the assistant director, Robert Putnam. Walter Price was the business manager and James Brownfield and Carlyle Small were the stage managers.

The play was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

The play was directed by George H. Turley and the assistant director, Robert Putnam. Walter Price was the business manager and James Brownfield and Carlyle Small were the stage managers.

The play was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

The play was directed by George H. Turley and the assistant director, Robert Putnam. Walter Price was the business manager and James Brownfield and Carlyle Small were the stage managers.

The play was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

The play was directed by George H. Turley and the assistant director, Robert Putnam. Walter Price was the business manager and James Brownfield and Carlyle Small were the stage managers.

The play was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

The play was directed by George H. Turley and the assistant director, Robert Putnam. Walter Price was the business manager and James Brownfield and Carlyle Small were the stage managers.

The play was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

The play was directed by George H. Turley and the assistant director, Robert Putnam. Walter Price was the business manager and James Brownfield and Carlyle Small were the stage managers.

The play was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

The play was directed by George H. Turley and the assistant director, Robert Putnam. Walter Price was the business manager and James Brownfield and Carlyle Small were the stage managers.

The play was presented at the chapel service of the Fairmont State Normal School this morning by the Dramatic Club of the school.

For financial reasons Artie, a young artist, who is single, has written his wealthy aunt that he is married and when the aunt comes to visit him a few weeks later the farce is cleverly worked out.

The play consisted of one act and scene, the scene being laid in the artist's studio in a Washington apartment house, and the time being the present. The cast was as follows:

Artie, an artist, Edward Offner; Parks, his pal, Dale Stewart; Eleanor, Artie's sweetheart, Lucille Gundlach; Aunt Agnes, Artie's aunt, Carline Stealey; John Potts, meat packer, Harold Fleming; Bella Potts, his daughter, Pauline Boggess; Mrs. Munford Wells, society matron, Eleanor Durrett; Patsy, whose mother washes, Ruth Boserman; Mary, the maid, Frances McCray.

Spring Heralds Her Coming With Many Wonderful SPORTS TOGS Paris Inspired

Sports Coats and Dresses are so colorful that it is utterly impossible to try to picture them to you in cold black type. But can't you imagine tomato red, periwinkle blue, aero blue, mailard, coral sphink, begonia and orange sports costumes merrily flitting over the green?

Capes of various sizes, they are seen even on sports frocks. Some of the sports suits have knickers.

There are sports blouses, sports skirts, sports sweaters—all claiming Paris as their inspiration. And whatever you do, don't miss seeing them.

You can rest assured that the sports togs Hartley's feature are being worn at various resorts, at the country clubs—wherever fashionable folk gather.

Visualizing The New Clothes

With the Help of the New Materials and Paper Patterns

So many women are looking to the Butterick Fashion Book with its easy-to-follow patterns for inspiration in their wardrobe plans. So many women are placing great hope in the new fabrics for strikingly effective Spring and Summer Costumes. And that they will be assured of finer clothes—and more becoming clothes for less money, we know—for aren't the materials and patterns closely allied this season to make folks better dressed? And at small outlay?

Don't take our word for it though—come in and see for yourself what inspiration there is in the new fashion, what wonderfully lovely costumes new silks, woolsens and wash materials conjure in one's mind.

Comes This Spring Dressmaking Week

Saturday An Important Sale of HANDKERCHIEFS

Fifty Dozen White Handkerchiefs with Corded Borders and Embroidered Corner Design

20c Each

6 for

$1.00

Regular

25c

Value

Coty Face Powder 79c

Hartley's

Lemon Skin Whitener Soap 3 for 25c